2. The Choral Director in his discretion may limit the size of the voice groups.

3. Absence of a Choral Member from two consecutive concerts shall result in suspension of membership of the Choral Member. Reinstatement of Choral Membership status shall require a new audition.
4. Membership Voting. Each member in good standing of the Club shall be entitled to one vote on all matters coming before the membership.
5. Dues. Members shall be liable for dues as determined by the Board of Directors until resignation has been received by the Club or until suspended in accordance with Section 7. 6. Arrearage. Any member whose dues shall become two or more months in arrears may be declared suspended by the Club after having received one-month's notice. A suspended member may be reinstated after payment of the delinquency.

ARTICLE V - MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

1. Meetings of the members shall be held at the regular place of weekly rehearsal or at such other place or places, either within or without the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as may from time to time be fixed by the Board of Directors.
2. The annual meeting of the members shall be held on a Wednesday in April of each year when they shall elect a Board of Directors and transact such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. If the annual meeting shall not be called and held within six months after the designated time, any member may call such meeting.
3. Special Meeting. Special meetings of the members of the Club at large may be called at any time by the President. In addition, the President shall, upon request of three or more members of the Board of Directors or of twenty active members made in writing and expressing the object and purpose of the meeting, call such a special meeting of the members. No other business of any nature whatsoever shall be acted upon at said special meeting. Notice of the time and place of holding such special meeting shall be transmitted by the Corresponding Secretary at least five days prior to the holding thereof to each active member in good standing.

4. A meeting of members duly called shall not be organized for the transaction of business unless a quorum is present. The presence in person of a simple majority of the members entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the members for the transaction of business except as may be otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation. The members present at a duly organized meeting can continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum. If a meeting cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, those present may, except as otherwise provided by statute, adjourn the meeting to such time and place as they may determine, but in the case of any meeting called for the election of directors, those who attend the second of such adjourned meetings, although less than a quorum, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors. In the case of any meeting called for any other purpose, those who attend the second of such adjourned meetings, although less than a quorum, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon any resolution or other matter set forth in the notice of the meeting, if written notice of such second adjourned meeting, stating that those members who attend shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of acting upon such resolution or other matter, is given to each member of record entitled to vote at such second adjourned meeting at least ten (10) days prior to the day named for the second adjourned meeting.
5. Any action which may be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the members who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose and shall be filed with the General Secretary of the Club.
3. Upon prior request of a member, the books, records, and roster of membership shall be produced at any regular or special meeting of the Club. If at any meeting the right of a person to vote is challenged, the presiding officer shall require such books or records to be produced as evidence of the right of the person challenged to vote, and all persons who appear by such books or records to be members entitled to vote may vote. The right of a member to votes, and his or her right, title and interest in or to the Club or its property, shall cease on the termination of membership.
4. Voting may be by ballot, mail or any reasonable means determined by the Board of Directors. Elections for directors need not be by ballot except upon demand made by a member at the election and before the voting begins.
5. In advance of any meeting of members, the Board of Directors may appoint judges of election, who need not be members, to act at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. If judges of election are not so appointed, the presiding officer of any such meeting may, and on the request of any member shall, make such appointment at the meeting. The number of judges shall be one or three. No person who is a candidate for office shall act as judge.

5. A majority of the Directors in office shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the acts of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the acts of the Board of Directors. Any action required or permitted to be approved at a meeting of the directors may be approved without a meeting if a consent or consents to the action in record form are signed, before, on or after the effective date of the action by all of the directors in office on the date the last consent is signed. The consent or consents must be filed with the General Secretary of the Club.
6. The Board of Directors may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, establish one or more committees to consist of one or more Directors or members of the Club. Each committee of the Board shall serve at the pleasure of the Board.
 8. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to fix the compensation of directors for their services as such, and a Director may also be a salaried officer of the Club.

In every instance where any attorney or other agency shall be the person who seeks the right to inspection, the demand under oath shall be accompanied by a power of attorney or such other writing which authorized the attorney or other agent to so act on behalf of the member. The demand under oath shall be directed to the corporation at its registered office in this commonwealth or at its principal place of business wherever situated.

If the notice is sent by overnight mail, US mail, facsimile or electronic transmission, it shall be deemed to have been given to the person entitled thereto when deposited for delivery or sent, as applicable. A notice of meeting shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and any other information required by the Act. When a special meeting is adjourned it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken.
2. Whenever any written notice is required to be given under the provisions of the statute or the Articles of By-Laws of this corporation, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice; whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Except as otherwise required by statute, neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of a meeting need be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting. In the case of a special meeting of members such waiver of notice shall specify the general nature of the business to be transacted. Attendance of a person at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a person attends a meeting for the expressed purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE XIII – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. The fiscal year of the corporation shall begin on the first day of April.

ARTICLE XVI – COMMITTEE CHAIRPERSONS

1. Committee Chairpersons shall determine the size of their committees and shall select committee members with the exception of the music committee, which shall include when possible a member of each voice group other than that of its Chairperson.

ARTICLE XVII

LIMITATION OF PERSONAL LIABILITY OF DIRECTORS; INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND OTHER AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVES

17.1 Limitation of Personal Liability of Directors. A director of the Club shall not be personally liable for monetary damages as such for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, unless: (a) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his or her office as defined in section 17.2 below; and (b) the breach or failure to perform constitutes self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness.

The provisions of this Section 17.1 shall not apply to: (a) the responsibility or liability of a director pursuant to any criminal statute; or (b) the liability of a director for the payment of taxes pursuant to local, state or federal law.

17.2 Standard of Care and Justifiable Reliance.

(a) A director of the Club shall stand in a fiduciary relationship to the Club and shall perform the duties as a director, including the duties as a member of any committee of the Board of Directors upon which he or she may serve, in good faith, in a manner such director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Club, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances. In performing his or her duties, a director shall be entitled to rely in good faith on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by any of the following:

(1) One or more officers or employees of the Club whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(2) Counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the director reasonably believes to be within the professional or expert competence of such person;

(3) A committee of the board of directors upon which such director does not serve, duly designated in accordance with law, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director reasonably believes to merit confidence.

A director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if such director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause his or her reliance to be unwarranted.

(b) In discharging the duties of their respective positions, the Board of Directors, committees of the Board and individual directors may, in considering the best interests of the Club, consider the effects of any action upon employees, upon persons with whom the Club has business and other relations and upon communities in which the offices or other establishments of or related to the Club are located, and all other pertinent factors. The consideration of those factors shall not constitute a violation of subsection (a) of this subsection 17.2.

(c) Absent a breach of fiduciary duty, lack of good faith or self-dealing, actions taken as a director or any failure to take any action shall be presumed to be in the best interests of the Club.

17.3 Indemnification in Third Party Proceedings. The Club shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Club) by reason of the fact that such person is or was an officer, director or employee of the Club, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Club, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Club, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

17.4 Mandatory Indemnification. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of the articles or these bylaws, to the extent that an officer, director or employee of the Club has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 17.3 above, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

17.5 Determination of Entitlement to Indemnification. Unless ordered by a court, any indemnification under Section 17.3 above shall be made by the Club only as authorized in the specific case upon determination that indemnification of the representative is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in such paragraph. Such determination shall be made:

- (A) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding; or
- (B) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

17.6 Advancing Expenses. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Club in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the board of directors in a specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the representative to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the Club as authorized in Section 17.5 above.

17.7 Indemnification of Former Representatives. Each such indemnity may continue as to a person who has ceased to be an officer, director or employee of the Club and may inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such person.

17.8 Insurance. The Club shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Club against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any capacity or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the Club would otherwise have the power to indemnify such person against such liability.
